SPONSOR AN AFRICAN SCHOLAR

OMAR

Omar is in form 1. He will be completing his secondary school education in the year 2024.

FAMILY BACKGROUND

Omar is the 2nd born in his family. The family consists of 2 girls and 1 boy. Omar and his sibling stay with both of their parents. His dad is working as a casual laborer at Kongowea market while his mother is a house wife. The little amount he gets from the job, its spent on rent and providing food for the family. His earning has made it hard for him to cater for the education of his children.

Omar is afraid of not being able to continue with his studies due to financial instability. Even joining secondary school was difficult and its only the well wishes who made it possible for him to join.

He is pleading for someone to come to his aid so that he can pursue his dream of becoming an Electric Engineer.

They live in Kongowea in a single room house with electricity but no running water.

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

Omar is a very hardworking. His favorite subjects are Physics and religious studies. During his free time, he likes playing football.
